

Motion Noting Date Requirements: Local Rules CR 7(b) and (d)

The motion's noting date shall be placed in the caption. After receiving all pleadings relevant to the motion, the Court will determine whether additional briefing or oral argument are necessary, or whether the matter may be decided on the pleadings.

All motions shall be noted on a weekday, excluding legal holidays.

Note the following motions for consideration for the day they are filed:

- Stipulated, joint or agreed
- Request for over-length motions or briefs
- Reconsideration
- Joint submissions
- Appointment of a mediator
- Default and Default Judgment
- Ex Parte
- Recusal
- Temporary restraining order ("TRO")

Motions are to be noted no earlier than 14 days after filing. Any opposition papers shall be filed and received by the moving party no later than 9 days after the filing date of the motion. Any reply papers shall be filed and received by the opposing party no later than 14 days after the filing of the motion. (This noting date does not apply where a party is under confinement.)

- Motions for relief from a deadline
- Motions for protective order

With the exception of the motions specifically set forth herein (same-day, 14-day, and 28-day motions), all other motions are to be noted no earlier than 21 days after filing. Any opposition papers shall be filed and received by the moving party no later than 15 days after the filing date of the motion. Any reply papers shall be filed and received by the opposing party no later than 21 days after the filing of the motion.

Motions are to be noted 28 days after filing. Any opposition papers shall be filed and received by the moving party no later than 21 days after the filing date of the motion. Any reply papers shall be filed and received by the opposing party no later than 28 days after the filing of the motion.

- Dispositive motions (dismiss and summary judgment)

- Preliminary Injunctions
- Exclusion of expert testimony for failure to satisfy Fed. R. Evid. 702/Daubert
- Class certification
- Changing the forum (remand, transfer, or compel arbitration)

Motions in Limine

Note for consideration no later than 12 days prior to any scheduled Pretrial Conference