The City of Seattle and the United States of America (“Parties”) hereby jointly move to terminate paragraphs 69-168 of the Consent Decree. Dkt. 3-1. This matter’s governing document—the Consent Decree—establishes that once compliance with its terms has been demonstrated and held for a period of two years, those terms may be terminated. See id. at ¶¶ 223, 229. The Court found that the City of Seattle achieved “full and effective compliance” with the “Commitments” section of the Consent Decree (paragraphs 69-168) in January of 2018. Dkt. 439. Subsequently, the Parties, Monitor, and Court agreed that the “Sustainment Plan” (Dkts. 444 & 444-1) would be

1 used to assess whether the City of Seattle had sustained compliance with those areas of reform for 2 the requisite period of two years. See Dkt. 448.

3 As of January 10, 2020, all of the work required by the Sustainment Plan is complete. After 4 performing assessments of each Commitment topic area, the City of Seattle concluded that it
5 successfully maintained compliance with each for two years.¹ The Monitor and the United States
6 independently assessed each of these areas and agreed that the City maintained compliance.²
7 Further discussion of the history of this Consent Decree, the City's efforts to achieve compliance,
8 and support for this Motion are found in the Parties' concurrently filed Memoranda in Support.

9 The Parties acknowledge that the Court's May 21, 2019 Order raises issues regarding 10 discipline and accountability. Dkt. 562 at 2. However, the Court's Order also expressly states that 11 its finding does not affect the City's compliance in any of the areas listed in the Phase II
12 Sustainment Plan. Id. Accordingly this motion may be ruled on without consideration of those 13 additional issues. The City anticipates filing a response to those issues by August 1, 2020.

14 For all of these reasons, termination of the Commitments section of the Consent Decree
15 and all related monitoring by the Court is now warranted and appropriate and the Parties
16 respectfully request the Court's entry of such an order.
