Procedure and Tips for Filing a Request for Dispute Resolution

- Use the Miscellaneous Relief event under Civil Motions to post your Request for Dispute Resolution in CM/ECF and post only in the main case (C70-9213)
- You may include summonses to be issued as an attachment to your Request for Dispute Resolution.
- The Court will review the Request and issue a new sub-subproceeding number, if appropriate, in an order.
- The Clerk will open a new sub-subproceeding as directed by the Court in an order.
 - Parties will be entered on the docket as they appear in the caption of the Request for Dispute Resolution.
 - Only attorneys whose names appear in the signature block of the Request for Dispute Resolution will be added to the docket. Any attorneys who appear subsequently will need to file a notice of appearance.
- If a motion for temporary restraining order, or any other emergency motion, is included please contact the Case Administrator.
