P. 26, proceedings upon a defendant's default, bankruptcy proceedings before this court, condemnation cases, forfeiture actions, and cases filed as miscellaneous matters before this court.

As the case proceeds, if counsel for any party concludes that an ADR procedure would have a significant possibility of fostering an early and inexpensive resolution of the case, that counsel shall so advise the court and all other counsel in writing. Whenever possible, such reports should be submitted jointly by counsel for all parties.

(e) Proposed Pretrial Order

The proposed pretrial order, bearing the signatures of counsel for each party, shall be filed 30 days prior to the scheduled trial date, unless otherwise ordered by the court.

Further clarification may be obtained by reviewing the assigned judge’s web page at <http://wawd.uscourts.gov> or, in the absence of guidance in an order or on the web page, by contacting the assigned judge’s courtroom deputy.

(i) Defendant's Pretrial Statement

Not later than 20 days prior to the filing of the proposed pretrial order, each defense counsel shall serve upon counsel for all other parties a brief statement as to:

(4) The names and addresses of all witnesses who might be called by defendant, and the general nature of the expected testimony of each. #### (k) Conference of Attorneys

Not later than ten days prior to the filing of the proposed pretrial order, there shall be a conference of attorneys for the purpose of accomplishing the requirements of this rule. It shall be the duty of counsel for the plaintiff to arrange for the conference. The attorney principally responsible for trying the case on behalf of each party shall attend the conference. Each attorney shall be completely familiar with all aspects of the case in advance of the conference, and be prepared to enter into stipulations with reference to as many facts and issues and exhibits as possible, and to discuss the possibility of settlement. At the conference, counsel shall cooperate in developing a proposed pretrial order which can be signed by counsel for all parties. Except in land condemnation cases, the order shall, insofar as possible, be in the form set forth below in LCR 16.1. The parties' witness lists may be on separate pages. Counsel shall assemble a single pretrial order, properly paginated.

(l) Final Pretrial Conference

The court may, in its discretion, schedule a final pretrial conference. Counsel who will have principal responsibility for trying the case for each party shall attend, together with any party proceeding pro se. At the final pretrial conference, the court may consider and take action with respect to:

- (1) The sufficiency of the proposed pretrial order;
- (2) Any matters which may be presented relative to parties, process, pleading or proof, with a view to simplifying the issues and bringing about a just, speedy and inexpensive determination of the case;
- (3) In jury cases, whether the parties desire to stipulate that a verdict or a finding of a stated majority of the jurors shall be taken as the verdict or finding of the jury;
- (4) Requirements with respect to trial briefs;
- (5) Requirements with respect to requests for instruction and suggested questions to be asked by the court on voir dire in cases to be tried by jury;
- (6) The number of expert witnesses to be permitted to testify on any one subject;
- (7) The possibility of settlement; but nothing with respect thereto shall be incorporated in the pretrial order, and any discussion with respect to settlement shall be entirely without prejudice, and may not be referred to during the trial of the case or in any arguments or motions.

(m) Other General Provisions

(1) In order to accomplish effective pretrial procedures and to avoid wasting the time of the parties, counsel, and the court, the provisions of this rule will be strictly enforced. Sanctions and penalties for failure to comply are set forth in LCR 11 and in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

(2) The court may, by order in a specific case, modify or forego any of the procedures or deadlines set forth in this rule.

(3) A party proceeding without counsel shall comply in all respects with obligations imposed upon “counsel” under this rule.

(4) The full-time magistrate judges of this court are authorized to conduct pretrial conferences, enter and modify scheduling orders, and perform all other functions performed by district judges under Fed. R. Civ. P. 16 and this rule.

CLASS ACTIONS

(a) through (h) Reserved

(i) Format and Time Limits

In any case sought to be maintained as a class action:

(1) The complaint shall bear next to its caption the legend, "Complaint—Class Action."

(2) The complaint shall contain under a separate heading, styled "Class Action Allegations":

(a) A reference to the portion or portions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 under which it is claimed that the suit is properly maintainable as a class action.

(b) Appropriate allegations thought to justify such claim, including, but not necessarily limited to:

1. The size (or approximate size) and definition of the alleged class,
2. The basis upon which the plaintiff (or plaintiffs) claims
  - (i) to be an adequate representative of the class, or
  - (ii) if the class is composed of defendants, that those named as parties are adequate representatives of the class.
3. The alleged questions of law and fact claimed to be common to the class, and
4. In actions claimed to be maintainable as class actions under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(b)(3), allegations thought to support the findings required by that subdivision.

(3) Within one hundred eighty days after the filing of a complaint in a class action, unless otherwise ordered by the court or provided by statute, the plaintiff shall move for a determination under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(1), as to whether the case is to be maintained as a class action. This period may be extended on motion for good cause. The court may certify the class, may disallow and strike the class allegations, or may order postponement of the determination pending discovery or such other preliminary procedures as appear appropriate and necessary in the circumstances. Whenever possible, where the determination is postponed, a date will be fixed by the court for renewal of the motion.

(4) The foregoing provisions shall apply, with appropriate adaptations, to any counterclaim or cross claim alleged to be brought for or against a class.

LCR 23.1

RESERVED

- (v) requesting to use an abbreviated pretrial order; and
- (vi) requesting other orders the court should enter under LCR 16(b) and (c).

(E) the targeted discovery that each side anticipates seeking;

(F) phasing motions to facilitate early resolution of potentially dispositive issues;

(G) any preliminary issues relating to the preservation of discoverable information and the scope of the preservation obligation;

(H) procedures for handling inadvertent production of privileged information and other privilege waiver issues pursuant to Rule 502(d) or (e) of the Federal Rules of Evidence;

(I) whether the case will involve the preservation and production of Electronically Stored Information (“ESI”) and, if so:

- (i) the nature, location, and scope of discoverable ESI; and

- (ii) whether the parties agree to adopt the Model Agreement Regarding Discovery of Electronically Stored Information in Civil Litigation (the “Model ESI Agreement,” which can be found under “Forms” on the court’s website) or a modified version thereof;

(J) if one or more of the parties intend to engage in the discovery of ESI and are unable to agree to the Model ESI Agreement or a modified version thereof, whether they are able to reach agreement regarding the following topics and the substance of their agreement:

- (i) the nature, location, and scope of ESI to be preserved by the parties;

- (ii) the formats for production of ESI (whether TIFF with a companion text file, native, or some other reasonably usable format);

- (iii) methodologies for identifying relevant and discoverable ESI for production, including:

- (a) methods for identifying an initial subset of sources of ESI that are most likely to contain the relevant and discoverable information as well as methodologies for culling the relevant and discoverable ESI from that initial subset;

(b) identifying the custodians and non-custodial data sources, including all third party data sources, most likely to have discoverable information;

(c) any plans to filter data based on file type, date ranges, sender, receiver, custodian, search terms, or other similar parameters; and

(2) The attorneys for each party shall review and understand how their client's data and ESI are stored and retrieved before the Rule 26(f) conference and before any meet and confer discussions related to the production of ESI in order to determine what issues must be addressed during those discussions. To satisfy this requirement, the attorney may choose to include in the Rule 26(f) conference and/or meet and confer discussion a paralegal, information technology specialist, or other person with knowledge about how the client's data and ESI are stored and retrieved.

(3) Any motion for a protective order or motion to compel related to the production of ESI must include the certification set forth in LCR 26(c) or 37(a)(1), state that the parties agreed to an ESI Agreement and attach that ESI Agreement, or state that the parties met and conferred regarding the topics set forth in LCR 26(f)(1)(I) to the extent they are applicable.

(4) In the scheduling order or by separate order, the court may require the parties to adhere to an agreement for the discovery and disclosure of electronically stored information.

(5) If the court determines that any counsel or party in a case has failed to cooperate and participate in good faith in the discovery planning process, the court may require additional discussions prior to the commencement of discovery, and may impose sanctions, if appropriate.

(6) Generally, the costs of discovery shall be borne by each party. However, on motion or on its own, the court may apportion the costs of discovery related to ESI upon a determination of good cause, considering the factors in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(2)(C) and

FAILURE TO MAKE DISCLOSURE OR COOPERATE IN DISCOVERY; SANCTIONS

(a) Motion for Order Compelling Disclosure or Discovery

(1) Meet and Confer Requirement. Any motion for an order compelling disclosure or discovery must include a certification, in the motion or in a declaration or affidavit, that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the person or party failing to make disclosure or discovery in an effort to resolve the dispute without court action. The certification must list the date, manner, and participants to the conference. If the movant fails to include such a certification, the court may deny the motion without addressing the merits of the dispute. A good faith effort to confer with a party or person not making a disclosure or discovery requires a face-to-face meeting or a telephone conference. If the court finds that counsel for any party, or a party proceeding pro se, willfully refused to confer, failed to confer in good faith, or failed to respond on a timely basis to a request to confer, the court may take action as stated in CR 11 of these rules.

(2) Expedited Joint Motion Procedure. A motion for an order compelling disclosure or discovery may be filed and noted in the manner prescribed in LCR 7(d)(3). Alternatively, the parties may, by agreement, utilize the expedited procedure set forth in this subsection. If the parties utilize this procedure, the motion may be noted for consideration for the day the motion is filed. After the parties have conferred, a party may submit any unresolved discovery dispute to the court through the following procedure:

(A) The moving party shall be responsible for preparing and filing a joint LCR 37 submission to the court. An example of an LCR 37 submission is attached as Appendix B.

(B) The moving party may draft an introductory statement, setting forth the context in which the dispute arose and the relief requested. Each disputed discovery request and the opposing party's objection/response thereto shall be set forth in the submission. Immediately below that, the moving party shall describe its position and the legal authority which supports the requested relief.

The moving party shall provide the opposing party with a draft of the LCR 37 submission and shall also make the submission available in computer-readable format.

(C) Within seven days of receipt of the LCR 37 submission from the moving party, the opposing party shall serve a rebuttal to the moving party's position for each of the disputed discovery requests identified in the motion. The opposing party may also include its own introductory statement. The opposing party's rebuttal for each disputed discovery request shall be made in the same document and immediately following the moving party's statement in support of the relief requested. If the opposing party no longer objects to the relief requested, it shall so state and respond as requested within seven days from the date the party received the draft LCR 37 submission. If the opposing party fails to respond, the moving party may file the LCR 37 submission with the court and state that no response was received.

(D) The moving party's reply, if any, in support of a disputed discovery request shall follow the opposing party's rebuttal for such request in the joint submission and shall not exceed one half page for each reply.

(E) The total text that each side may contribute to a joint LCR 37 submission shall not exceed twelve pages. This limit shall include all introductory or position statements, and statements in support of, or in opposition to, a particular request, but shall not include the discovery request itself.

(F) Each party may submit declarations for the purpose of attaching documents to be considered in connection with the submission and to provide sufficient information to permit the court to assess expenses and sanctions, if appropriate. If a party fails to include information sufficient to justify an award of fees, it shall be presumed that any request for fees has been waived. A declaration shall not contain any argument.

(G) The moving party shall prepare a proposed order that identifies each of the discovery requests at issue, with space following each of the requests for the court's decision. This proposed order shall be attached as a Word or Word Perfect compatible file to an e-mail sent to the e-mail orders address of the assigned judge pursuant to the court's Electronic Filing Procedures.

(H) The moving party shall be responsible for filing the motion containing both parties' positions on the discovery disputes, any declarations submitted by the parties, and the proposed form of order. The moving party shall certify in the motion that it has complied with these requirements. The submission shall be noted for consideration on the date of filing and shall be described as a "LCR 37 Joint Submission."

(I) If all parties agree to do so, they may use the expedited joint motion procedure for other types of motions, including but not limited to motions to seal, motions for relief from a deadline, and motions in limine. The timing and procedure shall be the same as set forth above except that (1) instead of setting forth the disputed discovery request and the opposing party's objection/response thereto, the moving party should set forth the relief requested and the legal authority that supports the requested relief, and (2) the moving party must submit a proposed order that sets forth the relief requested.

RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL; DEMAND

(a) Reserved

(b) Demand

Where jury trial is demanded in or by endorsement upon a pleading as permitted by Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the words "JURY DEMAND" shall be typed in capital letters on the first page immediately below the name of the pleading to the right of the name of the cause.

TRIAL BY JURY OR BY THE COURT

(d) Unnecessary Jury Panels

Where cases set for trial by jury are settled or agreed to be tried without a jury, notice of such agreement shall be filed in the Clerk's Office as soon as possible but no later than five (5) days before the day on which the case is set; otherwise jury expenses incurred by the government, if any, shall be paid to the clerk by the parties agreeing to such settlement or waiver. And where a continuance of such a case shall be applied for by one side, and resisted by the other, and granted by the court, the payment of jury expenses incurred by the government, if any, by the party applying for the continuance shall in all cases be one of the conditions of the continuance unless such continuance be granted as a matter of right and was not due to any fault of the moving party.

LCR 39.1

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

(a) Alternative Dispute Resolution Program

(1) Objective. The court strives to assist parties involved in civil litigation in resolving their disputes in a just, timely and cost-effective manner. To that end, the court has created an alternative dispute resolution (“ADR”) program pursuant to the Alternative Dispute Resolution Act of 1998, 28 U.S.C. § 651 et seq. That statute and this rule encourage and promote the early and inexpensive resolution of disputes through one or more alternative dispute resolution procedures, as defined below. The court finds that the use of alternative dispute resolution procedures promotes timely and affordable justice while reducing calendar congestion.

(2) Rule Administration. The alternative dispute resolution program shall be administered by the Clerk of Court with the cooperation and assistance of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee of the Federal Bar Association of the Western District of Washington (the "Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee"). The clerk and the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee shall compile and revise materials describing various ADR procedures available hereunder. The clerk shall make such materials available to the parties in civil cases as directed by the court.

(3) Definition. For purposes of this rule, an ADR procedure includes any process or procedure, other than an adjudication by a presiding judge, in which one or more neutral third parties participate to assist in the resolution of issues in controversy. Such procedures include the procedures available under sections (c)--(e) of this rule, as well as such other alternative dispute resolution procedures as the court may approve under section (f) of this rule.

(4) Participation in ADR Is Voluntary. Participation in ADR is voluntary unless the court orders the parties to participate. As set forth in LCR 26(f), parties are expected to advise the court in their joint status report regarding whether they plan to engage in ADR and if so, when and what type.

(5) Consideration of Alternative Dispute Resolution. Litigants in all civil cases subject to this rule shall consider the use of ADR procedures at all appropriate stages in the litigation, including the early stages of the litigation.

(6) Confidentiality. Except as otherwise required by law or agreed by the litigants, or otherwise provided by this rule, all ADR proceedings under this rule, including communications, statements, disclosures and representations made by any party, attorney or other participant in the course of such proceeding, shall, in all respects, be confidential, and shall not be reported, recorded, placed in evidence, disclosed to anyone not a party to the litigation, made known to the trial court or jury, or construed for any purpose as an admission or declaration against interest. No party shall be bound by anything done or said during such proceedings unless a settlement or other agreement is reached.

(7) Immunities and Protections. All persons serving as neutrals under this rule shall be accorded the immunities and protections that the law provides to persons serving in a quasi-judicial capacity.

(b) Attorney Neutrals

(1) Register of Attorney Neutrals. The Clerk of Court, with the cooperation and assistance of the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee, shall establish and maintain a register of qualified attorneys who have agreed to serve as neutrals under this rule. The attorneys so registered shall be approved by the court from lists of qualified attorneys at law, who are members of the bar of this court, have a physical office within the geographic boundaries of the Western District of Washington, and who are recommended by the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee. The Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee shall request the county bar associations within the geographical boundaries of the district to cooperate with the Committee in obtaining well-qualified attorneys for the register.

(2) Eligibility. To qualify for inclusion and continued maintenance on the register of neutrals under this rule, an attorney shall certify that he or she:

(A) has been a member of the bar of a federal district court for at least seven years or has had at least seven years of judicial experience;

(B) is a member of the bar of the United States District Court for the Western District of Washington and has a physical office within the geographic boundaries of the Western District of Washington;

(C) has devoted a substantial portion of his or her practice to litigation;

(D) has met such training requirement as the court may direct by general order;

(E) agrees to accept appointment to serve as a neutral on a pro bono basis when appropriate. Refusal to accept at least one pro bono appointment per year, if requested to do so, may result in the removal of the attorney from the register of neutrals; and (F) recertifies every three years that he or she continues to meet the eligibility requirements of this rule and has served as a pro bono mediator at least once during each calendar year or that he or she was not asked to do so.

(3) Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee. The Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee shall assist the court in determining that the register of qualified attorneys is duly maintained, that such attorneys have certified that they have necessary training and/or experience as required by the rule, and that such attorneys are in compliance with LCR 39.1(b)(2).

(4) Disclosure Requirement. Neutrals serving under this rule should disclose any interest or relationship likely to affect their impartiality or that might reasonably create an appearance that they are biased against one party or favorable to another. When parties, with knowledge of such disclosures, nevertheless desire a particular neutral to serve and affirmatively waive such disclosures, the neutral may serve; provided, however, that nothing in this provision shall affect the obligations of any district judge or magistrate judge under 28 U.S.C. § 455.

(5) Compensation and Mediation Without Charge. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, neutrals serving under this rule shall be eligible to receive compensation for their services and reimbursement for expenses incurred, either as agreed upon by the parties or within limits set by the court, subject to regulations approved by the Judicial Conference of the United States and/or the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. Parties may contact any neutral from the register and request that he or she conduct the mediation without compensation. Parties may also submit a request for pro bono mediation to the Alternative Dispute Resolution Committee using the form available on the court's website.

(c) Mediation

(1) Designation and Scheduling. In any civil case, the court may order the parties to engage in mediation under this rule, and may schedule the required steps so as to maximize the prospects of early settlement. The parties may file a written stipulation for mediation under this rule at any time.

(2) Settlement Conference. In every civil action in which the court has ordered the parties to engage in mediation under this rule, the attorneys for all parties to the action, except nominal parties and stakeholders, shall meet at least once, preferably in person, and engage in a good faith attempt to negotiate a settlement of the action no later than 30 days prior to the mediation conference, unless the court sets a different date.

(3) Selection of Mediator. In every civil action in which the court has ordered the parties to engage in mediation under this rule, the parties shall attempt to agree upon the selection of a single mediator for settlement purposes from the register of attorney neutrals. If they are unable to agree upon a mediator from the register of qualified attorneys, they may choose a mediator who is not listed on the register. If the parties cannot agree upon the selection of a mediator, either party may apply to the court for the designation of a mediator from the register of attorney neutrals. The court shall thereupon promptly designate a mediator from the register and shall send notice of that designation to the mediator and to all attorneys of record in the action. The court may require the mediator to serve without compensation in some circumstances. Within ten days of such notice, the mediator designated by the court shall advise all attorneys of record whether he or she is willing and able to serve as mediator and shall make all disclosures required by section (b)(4).

(4) Request for Mediation Without Charge. A party, or the parties jointly, may request pro bono (free of charge) mediation. To do so, parties may complete and sign the Request for Mediation Without Charge form, available from the Clerk's Office and on the court's website. On the form, parties must indicate the basis for the request, which may include that one or more parties are unable, without financial hardship, to pay the anticipated fee for the services of the mediator.

(5) Mediation Procedure. Whether selected by the parties or designated by the court, the mediator may arrange with the parties an initial conference call. Except to the extent the mediator directs otherwise, the following procedures shall apply:

(A) Copy of Pretrial Order or Pleadings. Upon selection of a mediator the parties shall provide the mediator with a copy of the Pretrial Order, if one has been lodged in the cause. If a Pretrial Order has not been lodged, they shall provide the mediator with copies of their relevant pleadings.

(B) Notice of Time and Place. The mediator shall fix a time and place for the mediation conference, and all adjourned sessions that is reasonably convenient for the parties.

(C) Memoranda. Each party shall provide the mediator with a memorandum presenting in concise form its contentions relative to both liability and damages. This memorandum should not exceed 10 pages in length. Copies of the memorandum must be delivered to the mediator and served upon all other parties at least seven days before the mediation conference. In addition, a party may deliver to the mediator a confidential memorandum that is not served on the other parties.

(D) Attorney's Attendance and Preparation Required. The attorney who is primarily responsible for each party's case shall personally attend and participate in good faith in the mediation conference and any adjourned sessions of that conference. The attorney for each party shall come prepared to discuss the following matters in detail:

(1) all liability issues;

(2) all damage issues; and

(3) the position of his or her client relative to settlement.

(E) Parties to Attend. In addition to counsel, parties and insurers having authority to settle, and to adjust pre-existing settlement authority if necessary, must attend the mediation in person and participate in good faith. The mediator may in his or her discretion, but only in exceptional cases, excuse a party or insurer from personally attending a mediation conference. If a party or representative of an insurer is excused from personal attendance by the mediator, the party or representative shall be on call by telephone during the conference.

(F) Failure to Attend. Willful or negligent failure to attend the mediation conference, to participate in good faith, or to comply with this rule or with the directions of the mediator, shall be reported to the court by the mediator in writing and may result in the imposition of such sanctions as the court may find appropriate.

(6) Notice to Clients of Mediator's Suggestions. Counsel shall comply promptly with any request by the mediator that a party be advised of the mediator's suggestions as to settlement.

The mediator shall have no obligation to make any written comments or recommendations but may provide the attorneys for the parties with a written settlement recommendation. No copy of any such recommendation shall be filed with the clerk or made available in whole or in part, directly or indirectly, to the court or to the jury.

The attorneys for the parties shall forward copies of any such recommendation to their clients and shall advise them of the fact that the mediator is a qualified attorney who has agreed to act as an impartial mediator in an attempt to help the parties reach agreement and avoid the time, expense and uncertainty of trial.

(7) Notice to Court. The mediator shall provide written notice to the judge, the Clerk's Office, and the parties stating (1) when the mediation occurred, and (2) whether the case is resolved. If the case was not resolved, the mediator also may submit a letter to the judge and the parties, not filed with the Clerk's Office, expressing the mediator's views as to whether the appointment of a settlement judge, or the use of other alternative dispute resolution procedures, would be advisable. In no event shall the mediator disclose any communication made between the mediator and the parties or their counsel.

(d) Arbitration

(1) Voluntary Submission to Arbitration. Parties may, to the extent permitted by statute, stipulate to voluntarily dismiss or stay their civil case and proceed to arbitration. Alternatively, the parties may jointly request that the court refer their case to arbitration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 654. Court referred arbitration shall be governed by the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §§ 651-658 relating to voluntary arbitration, for so long as those sections remain in effect, and by this rule.

(2) No Limitation on Use of Non-Court Referred Arbitration. LCR 39.1(d) and the procedures herein apply only to court referred arbitration. Nothing herein shall limit the ability of the parties to consent to enter into arbitration agreements that are otherwise valid and enforceable under the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq., RCW 7.04.010 et seq., or other comparable authority.

(3) Eligible Cases. The parties may consent to court referred arbitration in any civil action in this court, including an adversary proceeding in bankruptcy, except where:

(A) the case is based on an alleged violation of a right secured by the Constitution of the United States;

(B) jurisdiction is based in whole or in part on 28 U.S.C. § 1343, or

(C) the relief sought consists of monetary damages in an amount greater than $150,000. For purposes of this subsection, the court shall presume that damages are not greater than $150,000 unless counsel certifies that damages exceed that amount.

Notwithstanding the above, the court may decline to refer to arbitration any case in which the objectives of arbitration would not be realized:

- (A) because the case involves complex or novel legal issues,
- (B) because legal issues predominate over factual issues, or
- (C) for other good cause.

(4) Agreement and Order for Arbitration. The parties may agree in writing to submit all or part of their claims to court referred arbitration. Alternatively, the parties may prepare and submit their own form of agreement, and may thereby modify any of the provisions applicable to arbitration under this rule, subject to the approval of the court. Any agreement shall include a certification that the parties have been provided access to materials describing the arbitration program, and agree to arbitration freely and knowingly. If the parties agree that the arbitration is to be final and conclusive, with trial de novo waived, the agreement shall specifically so provide. A case shall be referred to arbitration only upon entry of an order to that effect by the judge to whom the case is assigned.

(5) No Prejudice for Refusal. A case shall be considered by a judge for reference to arbitration under this rule only if a consent form executed without limitation or qualification on behalf of every party has been received by the clerk. The plaintiff shall be responsible for securing the execution of consent forms by the parties and for filing such forms with the clerk of court. No consent will be made available, nor will its contents be made known to any judge, unless all parties have consented to the reference to arbitration. No party or attorney shall be pressured to consent to arbitration, or prejudiced in any way for refusing consent.

(6) Scheduling in Arbitration Cases. Prior to the arbitration hearing, the court shall:

- (A) set a trial date, which shall be no later than if the case had not been submitted for arbitration;
- (B) set a deadline for completion of all discovery. No discovery will be permitted during the period beginning fourteen days before the arbitration hearing and ending on the date the award is issued;
- (C) set a deadline for the commencement of the arbitration hearing; and
- (D) set a deadline for the filing of pre-arbitration motions.

(7) Number of Arbitrators. Cases shall be heard by a single arbitrator unless the court orders otherwise.

(8) Selection of Arbitrators. In court referred arbitration, all arbitrators shall be drawn from the register of neutrals unless the court orders otherwise in a particular case. The parties may secure a current register from the clerk. Within 14 days after the court orders arbitration, the parties may notify the clerk that they agree to nominate a specific arbitrator, and that the nominee has advised the parties that he or she is willing to serve. If the parties cannot agree upon the selection of an arbitrator, the clerk shall nominate the arbitrator from the register of neutrals. In either event, the court shall make the final appointment, and shall notify the arbitrator and the parties. Within ten days of such notice, the arbitrator designated by the court shall advise all attorneys of record whether he or she is willing and able to serve as arbitrator and shall make all disclosures required by section (b)(4).

(9) Oath or Affirmation and Powers of Arbitrator. The arbitrator shall take an oath or affirmation as prescribed by 28 U.S.C. § 453. The arbitrator shall have the power to conduct arbitration hearings, to administer oaths and affirmations, to make awards, and to assess costs within the meaning of Fed. R. Civ. P. 54 and LCR 54.

(10) Date and Place of Arbitration Hearing. The arbitrator shall notify the parties of the date, time and place of the hearing. The hearing shall be scheduled in accordance with the deadline set by the court and for as early a date as possible, consistent with the parties' needs to complete their preparation.

(11) Procedure at Arbitration Hearing. The arbitrator shall provide directions to the parties as to the procedure at the hearing, including the length of time allotted to each side and whether pre-hearing memoranda are required. All testimony shall be given under oath or affirmation administered by the arbitrator. In receiving evidence, the arbitrator shall apply the Federal Rules of Evidence. Attendance of witnesses and production of documents may be compelled in accordance with Rule 45, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The arbitrator may make reasonable rules and issue orders necessary for the fair and efficient conduct of the hearing and prehearing proceedings. Failure, without good cause, to comply with the arbitrator's rules and orders shall be reported to the court for its imposition of sanctions as provided in Rule 37 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedures and Local Rule CR 11 of this court.

(12) Transcript or Recording. A party may cause a transcript or recording to be made of the proceedings at its expense but shall, at the request of the opposing party, make a copy available to any other party upon the payment by that party of the cost of the copy.

(13) Filing of Arbitrator's Award. The arbitrator shall file his or her award with the clerk promptly after the hearing. The clerk shall transmit copies of the award to all parties. The award shall state clearly and concisely the name or names of the prevailing party or parties and the party or parties against which it is rendered, and the precise amount of money and other relief, if any, which is awarded. Unless otherwise required by the agreement to arbitrate, the award need not disclose the facts or reasons in support of the award. The award shall be in writing and signed by the arbitrator.

(14) Effect of Award. If the parties' agreement to arbitrate did not waive trial de novo the award shall be entered as the judgment of the court after the time has expired for requesting a trial de novo. The judgment so entered shall be subject to the same provisions of law and shall have the same force and effect as a judgment of the court in a civil action, except that the judgment shall not be subject to review in any other court by appeal or otherwise. If the parties' agreement to arbitrate specified that trial de novo was waived, the filing of the award shall be treated as a motion to confirm the award under 9

U.S.C. § 9, which motion shall automatically be deemed granted unless a motion to vacate, modify or correct the award for any of the grounds specified in 9 U.S.C. §§ 10 and 11 is served and filed within the time for requesting a trial de novo.

(15) Sealing of Award. The contents of any arbitration award shall not be made known to any judge who might be assigned to the case:

(A) except as necessary for the court to determine whether to assess costs of attorneys fees;

(B) until the district court has entered final judgment in the action or the action has been otherwise terminated; or

(C) except for purposes of preparing required reports.

(16) Trial De Novo.

(A) Time for Demand. Unless the agreement to arbitrate waived trial de novo, any party may, within 30 days of the filing of the award, serve and file a written demand for trial de novo. The case will then be treated for all purposes as if it had not been referred to arbitration.

(B) The trial de novo shall be conducted as though no arbitration proceeding had occurred. No reference shall be made to the arbitration award in any pleading, brief, or other written or oral statement to the trial court or jury either before or during the trial, nor, in a jury trial, shall the jury be informed that there has been an arbitration proceeding.

(C) Testimony given during the arbitration proceeding is admissible in subsequent proceedings by stipulation of the parties, or to the extent allowed by the Rules of Evidence, but the testimony shall not be identified as having been given in an arbitration proceeding.

(D) Costs and Attorney's Fees. Following the trial de novo, the court may assess costs, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1920, and reasonable attorney's fees against a party demanding the trial de novo if (i) that party fails to obtain a judgment more favorable to it than was the arbitration award and (ii) the court determines that the party's conduct in seeking a trial de novo was in bad faith.

(17) Mediation under Rule 39.1(c). If the parties have participated in an arbitration hearing under this rule they will not be required to participate in mediation under Rule 39.1(c). They may choose to participate in such mediation, however.

(e) Judicial Settlement Conferences

In any case, the court may appoint a settlement judge who may conduct a settlement conference in such manner as that settlement judge may deem appropriate. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, a judicial settlement conference will only be held in a case where the parties have already participated in mediation, but have been unable to reach a settlement.

(f) Other Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedures

Upon application of the parties, the court may approve for use under this rule other ADR procedures if the court concludes that such procedures appear reasonably calculated to further the objectives of this rule. Such ADR procedures include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Early Neutral Evaluation. This is an ADR procedure whereby the parties shall select a neutral from the register early in the case to provide an evaluation of the position of the parties regarding liability and damages. The early neutral evaluation shall be conducted according to procedures agreed to by the parties and determined by the neutral. The parties and their attorneys must attend such proceedings.

(2) No Limitation on Use of ADR Alternatives. Nothing herein is intended to prevent the parties from agreeing to use another dispute resolution alternative, subject to court approval as required by this rule.

LCR 39.2

INDIVIDUALIZED TRIAL PROGRAM

The court encourages parties to consider agreeing to an individualized trial. The Individualized Trial Program is meant to offer an abbreviated, efficient and cost-effective litigation and trial alternative. Subject to the approval of the assigned judge, the following procedures shall govern. “Individualized Trial” means a consensual, binding trial before a jury or before a judge with limited discovery and limited rights to appeal. Recognizing that individualized trial procedures are most efficient when tailored to the specific needs of a case, the parties may propose modifications to this rule, subject to the approval of the judge.

(a) Procedure to Request Individualized Trial

The parties shall file a written agreement, using the court form titled “Agreement for Individualized Trial and Request for Approval” available from the Clerk’s Office and on the court’s website. Neither the agreement nor its existence shall be disclosed to the jury. The time schedule for individualized procedures and trial shall begin on the date the agreement is approved by the court.

(b) Termination of Agreement

The agreement may be terminated by the court upon a showing that one or more parties have not participated in good faith with the provisions of this rule or that previously undisclosed facts have been discovered that make it inappropriate to use the individualized trial procedure.

(c) Applicable Rules

The provisions of the Individualized Trial Agreement, as approved by the court, shall supersede and govern over any inconsistencies or conflicts that arise between it and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or the Local Rules of this court. Otherwise, all Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rules of Evidence, and Local Rules of this court shall apply.

(d) Initial Disclosures

If initial disclosures have not been exchanged, or if they are not yet due, the disclosures required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(1)(A) shall be exchanged within seven (7) days after the agreement is approved by the court.

(e) Individualized Trial Conference

Immediately upon the filing of the agreement, plaintiff shall contact the courtroom deputy for the assigned judge and request an initial individualized trial conference. The conference shall occur no later than thirty (30) days after the filing of the agreement unless otherwise ordered by the court. Upon request of any party, the court may permit counsel to appear by telephone. In addition to or instead of the individualized trial conference, the judge may require the parties to submit a joint status report.

(f) Joint Individualized Trial Statement

The parties must file a Joint Individualized Trial Statement seven (7) days before the individualized trial conference addressing all of the following topics, unless they have already addressed these topics in their Joint Status Report or unless otherwise ordered by the court:

- (1) the date the Individualized Trial Agreement was approved by the court;
- (2) all prior and pending motions, their current status, and any anticipated motions;
- (3) whether there has been full and timely compliance with the initial disclosure requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26;
- (4) discovery taken to date, if any, the scope of anticipated discovery, any proposed limitations or modifications of the discovery rules, and a proposed discovery plan pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(f);
- (5) whether the parties wish to engage in any form of ADR, and if so, what form;
- (6) whether all parties will consent to have a magistrate judge conduct all further proceedings including trial and entry of judgment.
- (7) issues that can be narrowed by agreement or by motion, suggestions to expedite the presentation of evidence at trial (e.g., through summaries or stipulated facts), and any request to bifurcate issues, claims, or defenses.
- (8) proposed dates for designation of experts, discovery cutoff, hearing of motions permitted by this rule, pretrial conference, and trial;
- (9) whether the case will be tried to a jury or to the court; and
- (10) any other matters as may facilitate the just, speedy and inexpensive disposition of this matter.

(g) Case Management Order

The court shall issue a case management order following the conference. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the order shall require the parties to exchange the documents described in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(3) no later than fifteen (15) days before the pretrial conference and shall require the parties to complete all discovery no later than ninety 90 days after the individualized trial conference. The court will attempt to resolve all motions to dismiss and pleading issues at the individualized trial conference. The court may determine the extent, if any, that previous case management orders on matters subject to the individualized rules shall supersede or be combined with any previous orders.

(h) Pretrial Conference

The pretrial conference shall be held no later than one hundred fifty (150) days after the agreement is approved by the court.

(i) Discovery

Unless otherwise ordered by the court or by agreement of the parties, discovery shall be limited to ten (10) interrogatories per party, ten (10) document requests, ten (10) requests for admission, and fifteen (15) hours of depositions, per party. The parties may agree or the court may order that the time for response to written discovery be shortened. Deposition time limits are inclusive of fact witnesses and expert witnesses.

(j) Expert Witnesses

No party shall call more than one expert witness to testify, unless permitted by the court or by agreement of the parties.

(k) Pretrial Motions

Except for dispositive motions, all pretrial motions must use the individualized procedure set forth in LCR 37.

(l) Trial Date

Unless otherwise ordered, trial shall be held no later than six months after the agreement is approved by the court.

(m) Trial

Jury trial will be before seven jurors and may proceed before a six-person jury if a juror is unable to serve through conclusion of trial and deliberations. The court shall conduct all voir dire and shall determine time limits for opening statements and closing argument. Each side shall have three hours to present evidence, not including time for opening statement and time for closing argument. In multi-party trials, plaintiffs shall divide the three hours among themselves, and defendants shall divide the three hours among themselves. If the parties cannot agree to a division of trial time, the judge shall order a division.

(n) Post-trial Motions

(1) Post-trial motions shall be limited to determination of costs and attorney's fees, correcting a judgment for clerical error, conforming the verdict to the agreement, enforcement of judgment and motions for a new trial.

(2) Within ten (10) court days after notice of entry of a verdict, a party may file with the clerk and serve on each adverse party a notice of intention to move for a new trial on any of the grounds specified in subsection (n)(3) of this rule. The notice shall be deemed to be a motion for a new trial.

(3) Grounds for motions for a new trial shall be limited to: (1) judicial misconduct that materially affected the substantial rights of a party; (2) misconduct of the jury; or (3) corruption, fraud, or other undue means employed in the proceedings of the court or jury.

(o) Judgment

Judgment shall be entered within 30 days after a bench trial, except as ordered by the court for good cause.

(p) Appeal

Before filing an appeal, a party shall make a motion for a new trial pursuant to subsection (n) of these procedures. If the motion for a new trial is denied, the party may appeal the judgment and seek a new trial only on grounds specified in subsection (n)(3). All other grounds for appeal shall be waived and are not permitted, unless the parties agree otherwise.

LCR 40

SCHEDULING CASES FOR TRIAL

(a) Orders by Court

The court may make such orders as may facilitate the prompt, inexpensive, and just disposition of any action.

(b) Responsibility of Attorney

Responsibility for the appearance of attorneys, parties and witnesses in court in readiness for trial is on the attorneys of record and is not on the clerk. Attorneys of record shall advise the clerk, upon request, regarding their readiness for trial, probable duration of trial, and such other matters within their knowledge as may facilitate the performance of the clerk's duties and the prompt trial of causes.

DISMISSAL OF ACTIONS

(a) Reserved

(b) Involuntary Dismissal; Effect Thereof

(1) Any case that has been pending in this court for more than nine months without any proceeding of record having been taken may be dismissed by the court on its own motion for lack of prosecution. The plaintiff in any such action will be given an opportunity to show cause in writing, or at the court's election in open court, why the case should not be dismissed. A dismissal under this subparagraph will operate as an adjudication on the merits, as provided for in Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b), unless the court orders otherwise.

(2) A party proceeding pro se shall keep the court and opposing parties advised as to his or her current mailing address and, if electronically filing or receiving notices electronically, his or her current email address. If mail directed to a pro se plaintiff by the clerk is returned by the Postal Service, or if email is returned by the internet service provider, and if such plaintiff fails to notify the court and opposing parties within 60 days thereafter of his or her current mailing or email address, the court may dismiss the action without prejudice for failure to prosecute.

LCR 42

CONSOLIDATION

(a) Motion to Consolidate

If a party seeks to have its case consolidated with one or more cases pending in this district, the party may file a motion to consolidate the cases. If possible, the motion to consolidate should be filed in the earliest filed case, with a notice of the motion filed in the later filed case(s). If a party is unable to file the motion to consolidate in the earliest filed case, for example because it is not a party to that case, it may file the motion in its own case. The motion will be heard by the judge to whom the earliest filed case is assigned. Unless all cases are pending before the same judge, the court will consider, as a preliminary matter, whether to transfer the cases to ensure that all related cases are pending before the same judge.

(b) Meet and Confer Requirement

Prior to filing a motion to consolidate, the parties must meet and confer and attempt to reach agreement regarding whether the cases should be consolidated and whether consolidation should extend through trial. If they agree, the parties must file a stipulation to consolidate in all of the cases to be consolidated. The stipulation should also address, to the extent possible, any scheduling issues implicated by consolidation such as which case schedule should govern in the consolidated action.

LCR 43

TAKING TESTIMONY; MARKING EXHIBITS

(a) to (f) Reserved

(g) Marking of Exhibits

Unless otherwise ordered by the court, on the morning of trial each party appearing shall present marked and tagged trial exhibits to the clerk. Exhibits shall be marked in accordance with the Pretrial Order or other order of the court. The clerk shall be provided with an original and a copy of each exhibit; provided, that leave may be sought from the court to dispense with providing copies of exhibits where bulk or other considerations would make copying, or the use of copies, impractical.

Electronic exhibits must be provided on a CD unless otherwise ordered by the court. The party offering the electronic exhibit(s) must include an index on paper with the electronic exhibits.

The assigned judge may impose additional requirements for submitting proposed exhibits during a pre-trial conference, in the applicable case management order, or by other order. Further clarification may be obtained by reviewing the assigned judge's web page at <http://www.wawd.uscourts.gov> and/or by contacting the assigned judge's courtroom deputy.

(h) Procedure at Trial

(1) In the trial of an action the party having the affirmative of the issue shall open the cause by stating generally what the party expects to prove. The opposite party shall either then, or after the opening party has closed its evidence in chief, state generally what the party expects to prove. After all the evidence on each side is in, the party having the affirmative of the issue shall argue the cause to the court or jury, as the case may be, and shall, during such argument, state fully all of its points and refer to all of its authorities, or be precluded from a reply. The party holding the negative of the issue shall then argue its case, and the party having the affirmative shall close.

(2) Unless otherwise permitted by the court, counsel shall conduct the examination of witnesses and argument to the court or jury from the lectern, and counsel shall rise upon making objections or otherwise addressing the court.

(3) Not later than the close of each day of trial, counsel shall provide to opposing counsel a list of the witnesses he or she intends to call the following day of trial. This requirement may be modified for good cause shown.

(4) The parties may request to present exhibits in electronic format to jurors by including the request in their pretrial order as set forth in LCR 16 and by reiterating the request to the assigned judge prior to or during the final pretrial conference.

(5) Additional information regarding the availability and use of courtroom technology is available on the court's website.

(i) Examination of Witnesses

At trial only one attorney for a party shall examine or cross-examine any witness unless otherwise ordered by the court.

(j) Expert Witnesses

Except as otherwise ordered by the court, a party shall not be permitted to call more than one expert witness on any subject.

(k) Exclusion of Witnesses

Counsel will be responsible for monitoring compliance with an order excluding witnesses from the courtroom during trial.

(l) Presence of Attorneys

It is the right and duty of attorneys to be present in the courtroom at all times the court may be in session. If an attorney voluntarily absents himself or herself during such times or when the jury is deliberating, that attorney waives his or her right to be present and consents to such proceedings as may take place in the courtroom during his or her absence.

LCR 44 THROUGH 46

RESERVED

LCR 47

JURORS

(a) Examination of Jurors

The court will conduct a voir dire examination of the prospective trial jurors. To aid in the examination, counsel shall submit to the court, at such time as the court may direct, any questions they request be included in the examination. In addition, counsel may examine the prospective jurors directly if and to the extent permitted by the court.

(b) Reserved

(c) Reserved

(d) Contacting Jurors

Counsel shall not contact or interview jurors or cause jurors to be contacted or interviewed after trial without first having been granted leave to do so by the court.

RESERVED

LCR 51

JURY INSTRUCTIONS

(a) Reserved

(b) Reserved

(c) Reserved

(d) Reserved

(e) Joint Instructions

Twenty-one days before jury instructions are due, the parties shall exchange proposed jury instructions, verdict forms, and, if necessary, special interrogatories. Plaintiff is responsible for submitting proposed standard civil instructions and proposed instructions on any issue on which plaintiff bears the burden of proof. Defendant is responsible for submitting proposed instructions on any issue on which defendant bears the burden of proof. The parties shall confer with the objective of filing with the court one set of agreed-upon instructions, verdict forms, and interrogatories which addresses all elements of all claims and defenses in the case.

(f) Disputed Instructions

If the parties cannot agree on one complete set of instructions, verdict forms, and interrogatories, they shall file two documents with the court. The first document, titled "Joint Instructions," shall reflect all agreed-upon instructions, verdict forms, and interrogatories. The second document, titled "Joint Statement of Disputed Instructions," shall present each disputed instruction, verdict form, and/or interrogatories in the following order:

(1) At the top of the page, the proposed language shall be set forth with an identification of the party proposing it and a statement of any legal authority in support of the proposed language (not to exceed one page);

(2) Immediately following the proposed language and supporting legal authority, the opposing party shall set forth its alternative language, if any, and its objections to the proposed language along with any legal authority in support of the objections (not to exceed one page).

(g) Format

Each proposed instruction, whether filed jointly or under objection, shall be submitted on numbered paper. Each proposed instruction shall bear a unique instruction number and brief title at the top of the page. Any modifications to instructions taken from the above sources or from any other form instructions must be specifically noted such that the court and opposing parties are able to identify each modification. ### JUDGMENT; COSTS

(a) through (c) Reserved

(d) Costs

(1) Motion to Tax Costs/Bill of Costs. The party in whose favor a judgment is rendered, and who seeks to recover costs, shall, within twenty-one days after the entry of judgment, file and serve a motion for costs and necessary disbursements, also known as a bill of costs. The motion for costs shall be noted for consideration pursuant to LCR 7(d)(3). All costs shall be specified, so that the nature of the charge can be readily understood. The movant shall verify, in a declaration sworn under penalty of perjury by the party, an attorney of record, or an agent having knowledge of the facts, that each requested cost is correct and has been necessarily incurred in the case and that the services for which fees have been charged were actually and necessarily performed.. The fees referred to in this section refer to filing fees, witness fees, and other types of fees but not to attorney's fees. The movant may use a Bill of Costs form, available on the court's website, to list the costs and complete the required declaration.

If the party in whose favor judgment is rendered fails to file a motion for costs, all costs, other than statutory costs, shall be deemed to be waived.

(2) Additional Briefing. A party objecting to any item of costs shall file opposition papers at the time set forth in LCR 7(d)(3). The moving party shall file a reply, if any, at the time set forth in LCR 7(d)(3).

(3) Taxation by Clerk. Motions for costs shall be considered by the clerk. All motions for costs will be decided by the clerk on the written filings and without oral argument unless the clerk specifically directs the parties to appear for a hearing. The clerk shall allow such items specified in the motion which are properly chargeable as costs.

In taxing costs, the following rules shall be observed:

(A) The attendance, travel, and subsistence fees of witnesses, for actual and proper attendance, shall be allowed in accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 1821, whether such attendance was procured by subpoena or was voluntary;

(B) Reasonable premiums paid on undertakings or bonds or security stipulations shall be allowed where the same have been furnished by reason of express requirement of law, rule, or court order;

(C) Expenditures incident to the litigation which were ordered by the court as essential to a proper consideration of the case shall be allowed;

(D) All other costs shall be taxed in accordance with 28 U.S.C. §§ 1920, 1921, 1923, 1927, and 2412.

The clerk typically will not tax costs beyond those set forth in the statutes listed above. A party seeking additional costs may file a motion, directed to the court, seeking an award of the excess costs.

(4) Appeal. The taxation of costs by the clerk shall be final, unless modified on appeal to the district court judge or magistrate judge to whom the case was assigned. An appeal may be taken by filing a motion to retax which shall be filed and served within seven days after costs have been taxed and which shall specify the ruling(s) of the clerk to which the party objects. The motion to retax shall be noted for consideration pursuant to LCR 7(d)(3).

(5) Attorney's Fees. A motion for attorney's fees should not be included in the motion for costs to the clerk but should be directed to the court pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(d), which sets forth requirements for the timing and contents of the motion.

LCR 55

DEFAULT; DEFAULT JUDGMENT

(a) Entry of Default

Upon motion by a party noted in accordance with LCR 7(d)(1) and supported by affidavit or otherwise, the clerk shall enter the default of any party against whom a judgment for affirmative relief is sought but who has failed to plead or otherwise defend. The affidavit shall specifically show that the defaulting party was served in a manner authorized by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4. A motion for entry of default need not be served on the defaulting party. However, in the case of a defaulting party who has entered an appearance, the moving party must give the defaulting party written notice of the requesting party's intention to move for the entry of default at least fourteen days prior to filing its motion and must provide evidence that such notice has been given in the motion for entry of default.

(b) Judgment on Default

(1) No Default Judgment Absent a Default. No motion for judgment by default should be filed against any party unless the court has previously granted a motion for default against that party pursuant to LCR 55(a) or unless default otherwise has been entered.

(2) Supporting Evidence Required. Plaintiff must support a motion for default judgment with a declaration and other evidence establishing plaintiff's entitlement to a sum certain and to any nonmonetary relief sought.

(A) Plaintiff shall provide a concise explanation of how all amounts were calculated, and shall support this explanation with evidence establishing the entitlement to and amount of the principal claim, and, if applicable, any liquidated damages, interest, attorney's fees, or other amounts sought. If the claim is based on a contract, plaintiff shall provide the court with a copy of the contract and cite the relevant provisions.

(B) If plaintiff is seeking interest and claims that an interest rate other than that provided by 28 U.S.C. § 1961 applies, plaintiff shall state the rate and the reasons for applying it. For prejudgment interest, plaintiff shall state the date on which prejudgment interest began to accrue and the basis for selecting that date.

(C) If plaintiff seeks attorney's fees, plaintiff must state the basis for an award of fees and include a declaration from plaintiff's counsel establishing the reasonable amount of fees to be awarded, including, if applicable, counsel's hourly rate, the number of hours worked, and the tasks performed.

(3) By the Clerk. The clerk may not enter judgment by default in the case of a defaulting party who has entered an appearance, or who is an infant or incompetent, or who is or may be in the military service. In addition, a claim for "reasonable attorney's fees" is not for a sum certain under Fed. R. Civ. P. 55(b)(1) unless the complaint states the amount of fees sought. Motions to have the clerk enter a default judgment shall be noted in accordance with LCR 7(d)(1). A motion for entry of default judgment by the clerk need not be served on the defaulting party.

(4) By the Court. In all other cases, including instances where a defaulting party has entered an appearance, is an infant or incompetent, or is or may be in the military service, a motion for entry of a judgment by default must be addressed to the court. If there has been no appearance in the action by the defaulting party, the motion shall be noted in accordance with LCR 7(d)(1), but it need not be served on the defaulting party and notice of the motion need not be given to the defaulting party. If the defaulting party has appeared, the motion shall be noted in accordance with LCR 7(d)(3), and service of all papers filed in support of the motion must be made at the defaulting party's address of record. In the absence of an address of record, service shall be made at the defaulting party's last known address. The court may conduct such hearing or inquiry upon a motion for entry of judgment by default as it deems necessary under the circumstances of the particular case.

(b) Temporary Restraining Order

(1) Issuance Without Notice Disfavored: Motions for temporary restraining orders without notice to and an opportunity to be heard by the adverse party are disfavored and will rarely be granted. Unless the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b) for issuance without notice are satisfied, the moving party must serve all motion papers on the opposing party before or contemporaneously with the filing of the motion and include a certificate of service with the motion. The motion must also include contact information for the opposing party's counsel or for an unrepresented party.

(2) Length of Motion; Noting Date: The motion must not exceed twenty-four pages in length and may be noted for the same day it is filed.

(3) Procedure: Counsel must file emergency motions electronically unless the case is sealed in its entirety. After the motion is filed, the filer must promptly call the Clerk's Office at (206) 370-8400 to advise the court that it has filed an emergency motion. The clerk will promptly assign a judge and advise his or her chambers of the emergency nature of the filing. The court may consider the motion on the papers or schedule a hearing.

(4) Proposed Order: A motion for a temporary restraining order must include a proposed order specifically setting forth the relief requested and describing in reasonable detail the act or acts to be restrained or required.

(5) Response: Unless the court orders otherwise, the adverse party must (1) file a notice indicating whether it plans to oppose the motion within twenty-four hours after service of the motion, and (2) file its response, if any, within forty-eight hours after the motion is served. The response may not exceed twenty-four pages in length, and no reply will be permitted. If the movant meets the requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(b), the court may grant the motion without awaiting a response.

(6) Courtesy Copy: If the motion or response is filed electronically and, together with any supporting documents, it exceeds 50 pages in length, the filing party must deliver a courtesy copy to the Clerk's Office for chambers on the same day the motion is filed. Local Civil Rule 10 contains additional requirements regarding courtesy copies.

ATTORNEYS; ADMISSION TO PRACTICE

(a) The Bar of this Court

The bar of this court consists of those who have been admitted to practice before this court.

(b) Eligibility

An attorney is eligible for admission to the bar of this court if he or she is (1) a member in good standing of the Washington State Bar, or (2) a member in good standing of the bar of any state and employed by the United States or one of its agencies in a professional capacity and who, while being so employed may have occasion to appear in this court on behalf of the United States or one of its agencies.

(c) Procedure for Admission

(1) Admissions. With the exception of applicants for conditional admission, each applicant for admission to the bar of this court shall file with the clerk a Petition for Admission to Practice. The petition must include the certificates of two reputable members of the bar of this court attesting to the petitioner's good moral character. The certificates must be completed by members of this court's bar who either reside or maintain an office for the practice of law in the Western District of Washington. The petition form can be downloaded from the court's website. The clerk will examine the petition and if in compliance with this rule, the petition for admission will be granted.

(2) Conditional Admission. In the case of an attorney for the United States or one of its agencies who is not a member of the Washington State Bar, he or she must file a Petition for Conditional Admission to Practice, which can be downloaded from the court's website, and state the department or agency by which he or she is employed and the circumstances justifying the proposed admission to the bar of this court. The right of such an attorney to practice before this court is conditioned upon his or her continuing to be so employed. If a conditionally admitted attorney ceases to be employed as an attorney for the United States or one of its agencies, the conditional admission will be revoked and the attorney must file a petition for admission as set forth in LCR 83.1(c)(1) and pay the applicable fee.

(d) Permission to Participate in a Particular Case Pro Hac Vice; Responsibilities of Local Counsel

(1) Admission Pro Hac Vice. Any member in good standing of the bar of any court of the United States, or of the highest court of any state, or of any organized territory of the United States, and who neither resides nor maintains an office for the practice of law in the Western District of Washington normally will be permitted upon application and upon a showing of particular need to appear and participate in a particular case pro hac vice. The party must also be represented by local counsel, who shall fulfill the responsibilities set forth below. Attorneys who are admitted to the bar of this court but reside outside the district need not associate with local counsel.

An application for leave to appear pro hac vice shall be promptly filed with the clerk and shall set forth: (1) the name and address of the applicant's law firm; (2) the basis upon which "particular need" is claimed; (3) a statement that the applicant understands that he or she is charged with knowing and complying with all applicable local rules; (4) a statement that the applicant has not been disbarred or formally censured by a court of record or by a state bar association; and (5) a statement that there are no pending disciplinary proceedings against the applicant. This application, which can be downloaded from the court's website, must be filed electronically by local counsel. Applications filed under this rule will be approved or disapproved by the clerk.

(2) Responsibilities of Local Counsel. To qualify to serve as local counsel, an attorney must have a physical office within the geographic boundaries of the Western District of Washington and be admitted to practice before this court.

Local counsel must review, sign, and electronically file the applicant's pro hac vice application. By agreeing to serve as local counsel and by signing the pro hac vice application, local counsel attests that he or she is authorized and will be prepared to handle the matter, including the trial thereof, in the event the applicant is unable to be present on any date scheduled by the court.

In addition to those responsibilities and any assigned by the court, local counsel must review and sign all motions and other filings, ensure that all filings comply with all local rules of this court, and remind pro hac vice counsel of the court's commitment to maintaining a high degree of professionalism and civility from the lawyers practicing before this court as set forth in the Introduction to the Civil Rules.

ATTORNEY APPEARANCE AND WITHDRAWAL

(a) Entry of Appearance

An attorney eligible to appear may enter an appearance in a civil case by signing and filing a Notice of Appearance, complaint, amended complaint, answer, amended answer, Notice of Removal, motion to intervene, or motion for joinder on behalf of the party the attorney represents.

(b) Withdrawal of Attorneys

(1) With the exception of a change of counsel within the same law firm, no attorney shall withdraw an appearance in any case, civil or criminal, except by leave of court. Leave shall be obtained by filing a motion or a stipulation and proposed order for withdrawal or, if appropriate, by complying with the requirement of CrR 5(g). A motion for withdrawal shall be noted in accordance with LCR 7(d)(3) or CrR 12(c)(7) and shall include a certification that the motion was served on the client and opposing counsel. A stipulation and proposed order for withdrawal must (1) be signed by all opposing counsel or pro se parties, and (2) be signed by the party's new counsel or by the party. If a withdrawal will leave a party unrepresented, the motion to withdraw must include the party's address and telephone number. The attorney will ordinarily be permitted to withdraw until sixty days before the discovery cut off date in a civil case, and at the discretion of the court in a criminal case.

(2) Where there has simply been a change of counsel within the same law firm, an order of substitution is not required; the new attorney should file a Notice of Appearance and the withdrawing attorney should file a Notice of Withdrawal. However, where there is a change in counsel that effects a termination of one law office and the appearance of a new law office, the substitution must be effected in accordance with subsection (b)(1), which requires leave of court.

(3) A business entity, except a sole proprietorship, must be represented by counsel. If the attorney for a business entity, except a sole proprietorship, is seeking to withdraw, the attorney shall certify to the court that he or she has advised the business entity that it is required by law to be represented by an attorney admitted to practice before this court and that failure to obtain a replacement attorney by the date the withdrawal is effective may result in the dismissal of the business entity's claims for failure to prosecute and/or entry of default against the business entity as to any claims of other parties.

(4) When a party is represented by an attorney of record in a case, the party cannot appear or act on his or her own behalf in that case, or take any step therein, until after the party requests by motion to proceed on his or her own behalf, certifies in the motion that he or she has provided copies of the motion to his or her current counsel and to the opposing party, and is granted an order of substitution by the court terminating the party's attorney as counsel and substituting the party in to proceed pro se; provided, that the court may in its discretion hear a party in open court, notwithstanding the fact that he or she is represented by an attorney.

(5) When an attorney suddenly becomes unable to act in a case due to death, incapacity, removal or suspension, the party for whom he or she was acting as attorney must, before any further proceedings are had in the action on his or her behalf, unless such party is already represented by another attorney, (i) appoint another attorney who must enter an appearance in accordance with subsection (a) or (ii) seek an order of substitution to proceed pro se in accordance with subsection (b)(4).

(6) Unless the attorney withdraws in accordance with these rules, the authority and duty of an attorney of record shall continue after final judgment.

(b) Continuing Eligibility and Maintenance of Good Standing

- (1) Representation of Continuing Eligibility. By signing any document filed with the court or otherwise participating in any matter before the court, an attorney certifies that he or she is currently eligible to practice before this court. Should the status of an attorney change so that he or she no longer meets the requirements of LCR 83.1(b), he or she shall notify the Clerk of Court in writing no later than 10 days after the change in status.
- (2) If the change in status is due to a disciplinary proceeding or criminal conviction, the provisions of LCR 83.3(c) shall apply. Otherwise, upon receipt of a notification of change of status, the Chief Judge, or other district judge who may be assigned to the matter, may issue an Order to Show Cause why the court should not suspend or revoke the attorney's admittance to practice before the court. The Order to Show Cause shall contain:

- (a) a reference to the notification of the change of status;

(b) an order directing the attorney to show cause within 30 days why the attorney's admission to practice before this court should not be suspended or revoked;

(c) notification that failure by the attorney to file a timely response to the Order to Show Cause may be deemed to be acquiescence to suspend or revoke the attorney's admission to practice before the court.

(3) If the attorney files a response stating that he or she does not contest the suspension or revocation of his or her admission to practice before this court or the attorney does not respond to the Order to Show Cause within the time specified, then the Chief Judge or other judge assigned to the matter may issue an order suspending or revoking the attorney's admission to practice before this court.

(4) If the attorney files a written response to the Order to Show Cause within the time specified, stating that he or she contests the entry of an order suspending or revoking his or her admission to practice, then the Chief Judge, or other district judge who may be assigned, shall determine whether such an order shall be entered. The judge shall impose an order suspending or revoking the attorney's admission to practice unless the attorney demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence that one or more of the following elements have been shown from the record:

(a) the procedure in the other jurisdiction was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process;

(b) there was such an infirmity of proof establishing the reasons underlying the change in status in the other jurisdiction as to give rise to a clear conviction that the court should not accept as final the other jurisdiction's conclusion(s) on that subject;

(c) the imposition of suspension or revocation would result in a grave injustice; or

(d) other substantial reasons exist so as to justify not suspending or revoking the attorney's admission to practice.

(c) Attorney Discipline

(1) Jurisdiction. Any attorney admitted to practice before this court, admitted for a particular proceeding and/or who appears before this court is subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of this court.

(2) Powers of an Individual Judge to Deal with Contempt or Other Misconduct Not Affected. Nothing contained in this Rule shall be construed to limit or deny the court the powers necessary to maintain control over proceedings before it, including the contempt powers. Nothing contained in this Rule precludes the court from imposing sanctions for violations of the Local Rules, the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure, or other applicable statutes and rules.

(3) Grounds for Discipline. An attorney may be subject to disciplinary action for any of the following:

- (A) violations of the Standards of Professional Conduct stated in subsection (a) above;
- (B) disbarment, suspension, sanctions or other attorney discipline imposed by any federal or state court, bar association or other governing authority of any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia, or any other governing authority or administrative body which regulates the practice of attorneys;
- (C) conviction of any felony or a misdemeanor involving dishonesty or corruption, including, but not limited to, those matters listed in Rule 7.1(a)(2)(B)-(c) of the Washington Rules of Enforcement of Lawyer Conduct ("ELC");
- (D) misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact made in an application for admission to the Bar of this court or in a pro hac vice or reinstatement application;
- (E) violation of this court's Oath of Attorney.

(4) Types of Discipline. Discipline may consist of one or more of the following:

- (A) disbarment from the practice of law before this court.
- (B) suspension from the practice of law before this court for a specified period;
- (C) interim suspension from the practice of law before this court, defined as the temporary suspension of a lawyer from the practice of law pending imposition of final discipline. Examples of situations in which the court will consider interim suspension include:
  - (i) suspension upon conviction of a serious crime;
  - (ii) suspension when the lawyer's continuing conduct is likely to cause immediate and serious injury to a client or the public; or
  - (iii) inability to practice.
- (D) reprimand, defined as a form of public discipline which declares the conduct of the lawyer improper, but does not limit the lawyer's right to practice before this court;
- (E) admonition, defined as a form of non-public discipline which declares the conduct of the lawyer improper, but does not limit the lawyer's right to practice before this court;

(F) The following types of discipline may be imposed alone or in conjunction with other types of discipline. If imposed alone or in conjunction with a reprimand, these other types of discipline need not be made public by the court:

- (i) probation, with or without conditions;
- (ii) restitution;
- (iii) fines and/or assessment of costs; and
- (iv) referral to another appropriate disciplinary authority.

Any discipline imposed may be subject to specific conditions, which may include, but are not limited to, continuing legal education requirements, counseling and/or supervision of practice.

(5) Discipline Initiated by the Court.

(A) Authority of the Court. The court has the inherent authority to govern the conduct of attorneys practicing law before it.

(B) Initiation of a Grievance. A United States District Court Judge, Bankruptcy Judge, or Magistrate Judge may present to the Chief Judge a written grievance alleging that an attorney has violated any of the standards of conduct specified in this Rule and recommending the imposition of discipline against that attorney. The Chief Judge shall review the grievance and determine whether the grievance should be dismissed or pursued further.

If the Chief Judge determines that the grievance should be pursued, he or she may refer it to another judge who shall review the record and evaluate the evidence. If the Chief Judge initiates the grievance, he or she must refer it to another judge. If, at any time during the evaluation of a grievance, the Chief Judge or the assigned judge determines that the grievance would be more appropriately addressed by the Washington State Bar Association or other governing authority or administrative body which governs the practice of attorneys, the Chief Judge and the judge who referred the grievance may refer the matter to another authority or dismiss the grievance.

(C) Notice and Hearing.

- (i) If, after reviewing the record, the assigned judge determines that the matter should not be pursued, he or she will inform the Chief Judge. If the assigned judge concludes that a disciplinary proceeding should be conducted, he or she will issue an order to show cause to the respondent attorney explaining the alleged misconduct and inviting the attorney to show cause why he or she should not be disciplined. The notice shall be sufficiently clear and specific to inform the respondent attorney of the alleged misconduct. The order to show must also state that the failure to file a timely response may be deemed acquiescence to the imposition of discipline. The order to show cause shall be e-mailed and mailed to the attorney at the last known addresses the attorney provided to the court.

(ii) The attorney will be afforded at least thirty days to present any objections and show cause why discipline should not be imposed, and the order to show cause must include the deadline.

(iii) The attorney may request a hearing and choose to be represented by counsel at his or her own expense. There is no right to court appointed counsel or to a jury at the disciplinary proceeding.

(iv) During the hearing, if one is requested, or in the attorney's response to the order to show cause, the respondent attorney may submit any evidence or statements to rebut the grievance. The court may impose disciplinary sanctions only after the respondent attorney is afforded the opportunity to present evidence and argument in rebuttal and/or mitigation.

(v) If the attorney fails to file a timely response to the order to show cause, the assigned judge will review the record and determine whether the imposition of discipline is warranted.

(D) Confidentiality. During the pendency of the disciplinary proceedings, the allegations and other records of the proceeding will remain confidential and will not be made a part of the public record.

(E) Recommendation to the Chief Judge. Within a reasonable time after the hearing, if one has been requested, or after receiving the attorney's response to the order to show cause, the assigned judge shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law and recommend the disciplinary action, if any, to be taken. The assigned judge will transmit his or her findings of fact and conclusions of law, recommendation, and the record to the Chief Judge.

(F) Imposition of Discipline. The Chief Judge will review the documents transmitted by the assigned judge under subparagraph (E) and determine whether discipline should be imposed and if so, the appropriate discipline. If the Chief Judge initiated the grievance, then the matter shall be referred to the judge who is next in seniority for review and a determination. The appropriate disciplinary sanction to be imposed is within the court's discretion. However, in determining the proper disciplinary sanction, the court may refer to the American Bar Association Standards for Imposing Lawyer Sanctions. In addition, the court may, in its discretion, use as a guide any federal or state case law the court deems helpful.

(A) For purposes of this section, "discipline by any other jurisdiction" refers to discipline imposed by any federal or state court, bar association or other governing authority of any state, territory, possession, or the District of Columbia, or any other governing authority or administrative body which regulates the practice of attorneys.

(B) For purposes of this section, "discipline by any other jurisdiction" refers only to suspension, disbarment or other disciplinary action which temporarily or permanently deprives an attorney of the right to practice law.

(C) Upon receipt of a copy of an order or other official notification that he or she has been subjected to discipline by any other jurisdiction, an attorney who is also subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of this court shall provide the Clerk of Court with a copy of such disciplinary letter, notice or order.

(D) Any attorney subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of this court who resigns from the Bar of any other jurisdiction while disciplinary proceedings are pending against the attorney in that jurisdiction shall promptly notify the Clerk of Court of such resignation.

(E) Upon receipt of reliable information that an attorney subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of this court has been subjected to discipline by any other jurisdiction, or has resigned from the Bar of any other jurisdiction while an investigation or proceeding for discipline was pending, the Chief Judge, or other district judge who may be assigned to the matter, may issue an Order to Show Cause why reciprocal discipline should not be imposed by this court. The Order to Show Cause shall contain:

(i) a reference to the order or other official notification from the other jurisdiction;

(ii) an order directing the attorney to show cause within 30 days why reciprocal discipline should not be imposed by this court;

(iii) an order directing that if the attorney chooses to respond to the order and to contest the imposition of reciprocal discipline, he or she must produce a certified copy of the entire record from the other jurisdiction or persuade the court that less than the entire record will suffice;

(iv) notification that failure by the attorney to file a timely response to the Order to Show Cause may be deemed to be acquiescence to reciprocal discipline.

(F) If the attorney files a response stating that he or she does not contest the imposition of reciprocal discipline from this court, or if the attorney does not respond to the Order to Show Cause within the time specified, then the court may issue an order of reciprocal discipline. In fashioning the sanction to be imposed, the court may be guided by the discipline imposed by the other jurisdiction. The order imposing reciprocal discipline shall be issued by the Chief Judge or other district judge who may be assigned to the matter.

(G) If the attorney files a written response to the Order to Show Cause within the time specified, stating that he or she contests the entry of an order of reciprocal discipline, then the Chief Judge, or other district judge who may be assigned, shall determine whether an order of reciprocal discipline shall be entered. The judge shall impose an order of reciprocal discipline, unless the attorney demonstrates by clear and convincing evidence that one or more of the following elements appear from the record on which the original discipline is predicated;

- (i) the procedure in the other jurisdiction was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process;
- (ii) there was such an infirmity of proof establishing the misconduct as to give rise to a clear conviction that the court should not accept as final the other jurisdiction's conclusion(s) on that subject;
- (iii) the imposition of like discipline would result in a grave injustice; or
- (iv) other substantial reasons exist so as to justify not accepting the other jurisdiction's conclusion(s).

(7) Discipline Based Upon a Criminal Conviction.

(A) Any attorney subject to the disciplinary jurisdiction of this court shall promptly notify the Clerk of Court of the attorney's conviction of any felony or a misdemeanor involving dishonesty or corruption, including, but not limited to, those matters listed in Rule 7.1(a)(2)(B)-(c) of the ELC (hereafter, "crime" or "criminal conviction").

(B) Upon receipt of reliable proof that an attorney has been convicted of any of those matters identified in paragraph A above, the court shall enter an order of interim suspension, suspending the attorney from engaging in the practice of law in this court pending further order. Upon good cause shown, the court may set aside such suspension where it appears to be in the interest of justice to do so.

(C) The court shall forthwith issue an order to the subject attorney directing the attorney to show cause why the conviction or the facts underlying the conviction do not affect the attorney's fitness to practice law and why the attorney should not be subject to discipline based upon the conviction. The Order to Show Cause shall contain:

- (i) a copy of or a reference to the notification to the court that the attorney has been convicted of a crime;
- (ii) an order directing the attorney to show cause within 30 days why the criminal conviction or underlying facts do not affect the attorney's fitness to practice law, and why discipline should not be imposed by this court;

(iii) notification that failure by the attorney to file a timely response to the Order to Show Cause may be deemed acquiescence to discipline based upon the criminal conviction.

(D) If the attorney files a response stating that he or she does not contest the imposition of discipline by this court based upon the criminal conviction, or if the attorney does not respond to the Order to Show Cause within the time specified, then the court may issue an order of discipline.

(E) If the attorney files a written response to the Order to Show Cause within the time specified, stating that the criminal conviction or its underlying facts do not affect the attorney's fitness to practice law or stating that he or she contests the entry of an order of discipline, then the court shall determine whether discipline should be imposed.

(F) The discipline to be imposed shall be within the court's discretion. The court may consider the underlying facts of the criminal conviction, the sentence imposed on the attorney, the gravity of the criminal offense, whether the crime involved dishonesty or corruption, the effect of the crime on the attorney's ability and fitness to practice law, and any other element the court deems relevant to its determination.

(G) Upon the court's receipt of reliable proof demonstrating that the underlying criminal conviction has been reversed or vacated, any suspension order entered under subparagraph (7)(B) and any other discipline imposed solely as a result of the conviction may be vacated.

(8) Disciplinary Orders and Notices.

(A) Any order of discipline, except for non-public forms of discipline, as stated in subparagraph (4)(E)-(F) herein, shall be a public record.

(B) The court shall cause copies of all orders and notices of discipline, except for an admonition, to be given to the Clerk of Court, the Clerk of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Washington, the Clerk of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Washington, the Clerk of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, the Washington State Bar Association, and the appropriate disciplinary bodies in the jurisdictions in which the court knows the disciplined attorney is admitted to practice.

(9) Reinstatement.

(A) No attorney who has been suspended or disbarred from practice before this court may resume practice before the court until reinstated by order of the court.

(B) Any attorney who has been suspended or disbarred from practice before this court may not apply for reinstatement until the expiration of such period of time as the court shall have specified in the order of suspension or disbarment.

(C) Any attorney who has been disbarred or suspended from practice pursuant to the provisions of subparagraph (6) (reciprocal discipline) may apply for reinstatement based upon a change of the attorney's status in the jurisdiction whose imposition of discipline upon the attorney was the basis for the imposition of reciprocal discipline by the court.

(D) Any attorney whose admission to practice before this court was suspended or revoked pursuant to LCR 83.3(b) may apply for reinstatement if the attorney becomes eligible again under LCR 83.1.

(E) Petitions for reinstatement shall be filed with the Clerk of Court, who will transmit the petition to the Chief Judge. The petition must include a copy of this court's prior order of suspension or disbarment, a copy of an order of reinstatement from another jurisdiction if the petitioner is seeking reinstatement based on such an order, and a concise statement of facts claimed to justify reinstatement. Petitioners for reinstatement after disbarment must also file a Petition for Admission to Practice before this court and pay the applicable fee.

Upon receipt of a petition for reinstatement, the Chief Judge shall consider the matter or refer it to another designated judge. The petitioner shall have the burden of demonstrating that he or she is qualified and able to practice law before this court and that the circumstances that led to the suspension or disbarment have changed. After consideration, the court shall enter an appropriate order.

(F) Expenses incurred in the investigation and proceedings for reinstatement may be assessed by the court against the petitioning attorney, regardless of the outcome of the proceedings.

LEGAL INTERNS

(a) Admission to Limited Practice

Qualified law students and graduates of approved law schools may be admitted to the status of legal intern and be granted a limited license to engage in the practice of law only as provided in this rule. To qualify, an applicant must:

- (1) Be a student duly enrolled and in good academic standing at an approved law school with legal studies completed amounting to not less than two-thirds of a prescribed three-year course of study or five-eighths of a prescribed four-year course of study; or
- (2) Make the application before expiration of nine months following graduation from an approved law school, and submit satisfactory evidence thereof to the court; and
- (3) Certify in writing under oath that the applicant has read, is familiar with, and will abide by, the Washington State Rules of Professional Conduct and this rule.

(b) Procedure

The applicant shall submit to the clerk a completed Application for Leave to Appear as a Legal Intern, which can be downloaded from the court's website. No fee shall be required.

- (1) The application shall give the name of, and shall be signed by, the supervising lawyer who, in doing so, shall assume the responsibilities of supervising lawyer set forth in this rule if the applicant is granted a limited license as a legal intern. The supervising lawyer shall be relieved of such responsibilities upon the termination of the limited license or at an earlier time if the supervising lawyer or the applicant gives written notice to the court requesting that the supervising lawyer be so relieved.
- (2) Upon receipt of the application, the clerk shall forward it to a district judge or magistrate judge, who will approve or disapprove the application and return it to the clerk.

(c) Scope of Practice

A legal intern shall be authorized to engage in the limited practice of law only as authorized by the provisions of this rule. A legal intern shall be subject to all laws and rules governing lawyers admitted to this court and shall be personally responsible for all services performed as an intern.

- (1) A judge may exclude a legal intern from active participation in a case filed with the court in the interest of orderly administration of justice or for the protection of a litigant or witness, and shall thereupon grant a continuance to secure the attendance of the supervising lawyer.

(2) No legal intern may receive payment from a client for the intern's services. However, nothing contained herein shall prevent a legal intern from being paid for services by the intern's employer or to prevent the employer from making such charges for the service of the legal intern as may otherwise be proper. A legal intern, the intern's supervising lawyer or a lawyer from the same office shall, before the intern undertakes to perform any services for a client, inform the client of the legal intern's status, and obtain the client's consent to be represented by a legal intern.

(3) A legal intern may advise or negotiate on behalf of a person referred to the intern by the supervising lawyer. A legal intern may prepare necessary pleadings, motions, briefs or other documents. It is not necessary in such instances for the supervising lawyer to be present.

(4) A legal intern may participate in all court proceedings, including depositions, provided the supervising lawyer or another lawyer from the same office is present. Unless otherwise ordered by the court, the supervising lawyer or another lawyer from the same office shall be present while a legal intern is participating in court proceedings. Ex parte and agreed orders may be presented to the court by a legal intern without the presence of the supervising lawyer or another lawyer from the same office.

(d) Supervising Lawyer

The supervising lawyer shall be admitted to practice before this court. The supervising lawyer shall have been actively engaged in the practice of law for at least three years at the time the application is filed.

(1) The supervising lawyer or another lawyer from the same office shall direct, supervise and review all of the work of the legal intern and both shall assume personal professional responsibility for any work undertaken by the legal intern while under the lawyer's supervision. All pleadings, motions, briefs, and other documents prepared by the legal intern shall be reviewed by the supervising lawyer or a lawyer from the same office as the supervising lawyer. When a legal intern signs any correspondence or legal document, the intern's signature shall be followed by the title "legal intern" and, if the document is prepared for presentation to a court or for filing with the clerk thereof, the document shall also be signed by the supervising lawyer or lawyer from the same office as the supervising lawyer.

(2) Supervision shall not require that the supervising lawyer be present in the room while the legal intern is advising or negotiating on behalf of a person referred to the intern by the supervising lawyer, or while the legal intern is preparing the necessary pleadings, motions, briefs, or other documents.

(3) As a general rule, no supervising lawyer shall have supervision over more than one legal intern at any one time. However, in the case of (i) the Federal Public Defender or the U.S. Attorney, the supervising lawyer may have supervision over two legal interns at one time, or (ii) a clinical course offered by an approved law school where such course has been approved by its dean and is directed by a member of its faculty, each full-time clinical supervising lawyer may have supervision over ten legal interns at one time.

(4) A lawyer currently acting as a supervising lawyer may be terminated as a supervising lawyer at the discretion of the court. When an intern's supervisor is so terminated, the intern shall cease performing any services under this rule and shall cease holding himself or herself out as a legal intern until written notice of a substitute supervising lawyer, signed by the intern and by the new and qualified supervising lawyer, is given to the court.

(5) The failure of a supervising lawyer, or lawyer acting as a supervising lawyer, to provide adequate supervision or to comply with the duties set forth in this rule shall be grounds for disciplinary action by the court.

(6) For purposes of the attorney-client privilege, an intern shall be considered a subordinate of the lawyer providing supervision for the intern.

(7) For purposes of this provision of this rule which permit a lawyer from the same office as the supervising lawyer to sign documents or be present with a legal intern during court appearances, the lawyer so acting must be one who meets all of the qualifications for becoming a supervising lawyer under this rule.

(e) Term of Limited Admission to Practice

A limited admission to practice as a legal intern shall be valid, unless revoked, for a period of not more than 24 consecutive months, provided that a person shall not serve as a legal intern more than 12 months after graduation from law school.

(1) A limited admission to practice before the court is granted at the sufferance of the court and may be revoked at any time upon the court's own motion.

(2) An intern shall immediately cease performing any services under this rule and shall cease holding himself out as a legal intern (i) upon termination for any reason of the intern's limited license under this rule; or (ii) upon the resignation of the intern's supervising lawyer; or (iii) upon the suspension or termination by the court of the supervising lawyer's status as supervising lawyer; or (iv) upon the withdrawal of approval of the intern pursuant to this rule.

REMOVED CASES

(a) If the complaint filed in state court does not set forth the dollar amount prayed for, a removal petition shall nevertheless be governed by the time limitation of 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b) if a reasonable person, reading the complaint of the plaintiff, would conclude that the plaintiff was seeking damages in an amount greater than the minimum jurisdictional amount of this court. The notice of removal shall in that event set forth the reasons which cause petitioner to have a good faith belief that the plaintiff is seeking damages in excess of the jurisdictional amount of this court notwithstanding the fact that the prayer of the complaint does not specify the dollar damages being sought.

(b) In cases removed from state court, the removing defendant(s) shall file contemporaneously with the notice of removal a copy of the operative complaint, which must be attached as a separate “attachment” in the electronic filing system and labeled as the “complaint” or “amended complaint.” Defendant must include a certificate of service which lists all counsel and pro se parties who have appeared in the action with their contact information, including email address. In addition, a copy of any Jury Demand filed in the state court must be filed as an attachment and labeled “Jury Demand.” The removing defendant(s) shall, within fourteen days of filing the notice of removal, file with the clerk of this court black-on-white copies of all additional records and proceedings in the state court, together with defendant’s or defense counsel’s verification that they are true and complete copies of all the records and proceedings in the state court proceeding. The copies need not be certified or exemplified by the state court, and the added cost of certification or exemplification will not be allowed as a cost item under 28 U.S.C. § 1920(4) unless certification is required after an opposing party challenges the accuracy of the copies. Records and proceedings in the state court, filed with the notice of removal, need not be refiled.

(c) If a motion is pending and undecided in the state court at the time of removal, it will not be considered unless and until the moving party notes the motion on this court’s calendar in accordance with LCR 7(d).

(d) In a case removed from state court, a party must comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 81(c) to preserve any right to a trial by jury.

If the removal is based on diversity, the notice of removal must also, to the extent possible, identify the citizenship of the parties, and, if any of the parties is a limited liability corporation (LLC), a limited liability partnership (LLP), or a partnership, identify the citizenship of the owners/partners/members of those entities to establish the court’s jurisdiction.

(f) Parties asserting removal under 28 U.S.C. § 1452 (“Removal of claims related to bankruptcy cases”) should file their notice of removal with the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court. A party should not file the notice with the Clerk of the District Court for the Western District of Washington.

"Multiple litigation," as used in these rules, is two or more complex civil cases with one or more common questions of fact pending in one district.

"Multidistrict litigation," as used in these rules, is two or more civil cases with one or more common questions of fact pending in more than one federal district.

The policy of the court is to identify complex, multiple and multidistrict litigation as expeditiously as possible, and to apply where appropriate the provisions of the Manual for Complex Litigation (the most current edition is maintained by the Seattle Ninth Circuit Library).

(b) Multidistrict Litigation

Whenever a party knows or learns that its pending case involves all or a material part of the same subject matter and all or substantially the same parties as another action that is pending in any other federal court, the party must file a Notice of Pendency of Other Action within five days of learning of the other action as set forth in LCR 3(g).

PRISONER COMPLAINTS UNDER CIVIL RIGHTS ACT, 42 U.S.C. § 1983

(a) Form of Complaint

Complaints filed pursuant to the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1983 by or on behalf of prisoners, shall be typewritten or legibly handwritten, and signed by each plaintiff. Such complaints shall be on the forms supplied by the court unless the district judge or magistrate judge, upon finding that the complaint is understandable and that it conforms with the local rules and Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, in his or her discretion, accepts for filing a complaint that is not submitted on the appropriate forms.

(b) Forma Pauperis

See LCR 3.

(c) Place of Filing

See LCR 3(d).

(d) File Original Complaint; No Copies Required

Plaintiff shall send to the clerk an original complaint form for filing; plaintiff is not required to file additional copies. Plaintiff should keep a copy of the complaint for his or her own records; the clerk will not routinely return a copy of the complaint to plaintiff.

LCR 104

SUPPLEMENTAL REQUIREMENTS FOR FIRST HABEAS CORPUS PETITIONS IN CAPITAL CASES

(a) Applicability

This rule shall govern the procedures for a first petition for a writ of habeas corpus filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254 in which petitioner seeks relief from a judgment imposing a penalty of death. A subsequent filing may be deemed a first petition under this rule if the original filing was not dismissed on the merits. This rule is intended to supplement the Rules Governing § 2254 Cases and is not intended to alter or amend those rules. The application of this rule to a particular petition may be modified by the district judge to whom the petition is assigned.

(b) Notices From Washington Attorney General

The Washington Attorney General shall send to the clerk of this court a monthly report summarizing the status of each case wherein a Washington court has imposed the sentence of death.

(c) Notice From Petitioner's Counsel

Whenever counsel determines that a petition will be filed in this court, he or she shall promptly file with the clerk of this court and send to the Washington Attorney General's Corrections Division a written notice of intention to file a petition. The notice shall state the name of the petitioner, the district in which petitioner was convicted, the place of petitioner's incarceration, and the status of petitioner's state court proceedings. The notice is for the information of the court only, and failure to file the notice shall not preclude the filing of the petition.

(d) Counsel

(1) Appointment of Counsel. Each petitioner shall be represented by counsel, unless petitioner has clearly elected to proceed pro se and the court is satisfied, after a hearing, that petitioner's election is intelligent and voluntary.

Unless petitioner is proceeding pro se or is represented by retained counsel, counsel shall be appointed in every such case at the earliest practicable time. A panel of attorneys qualified for appointment in death penalty cases will be recruited and maintained by the Federal Public Defender. The Federal Public Defender will accept and review referrals to this panel from interested associations and bar groups.

When a death judgment is affirmed by the Washington Supreme Court and subsequent proceedings in the state courts have been concluded, if counsel is willing to continue representation in the federal habeas corpus proceedings, the Federal Public Defender shall review counsel's performance in the state courts and make a recommendation of whether that counsel should be appointed in federal court.

If state post-conviction counsel is available to continue representation in the federal court, and if he or she is deemed qualified to do so by the Federal Public Defender, there is a presumption in favor of continued representation except where state post-conviction counsel was also counsel at trial.

In light of this presumption, it is expected that appointed counsel who is willing to continue representation and who has been determined by the Federal Public Defender to be qualified to do so would ordinarily file a motion for appointment of counsel on behalf of his or her client together with the client's federal habeas corpus petition. If, however, counsel for any reason wishes to confirm his or her appointment before preparing the petition, counsel may move for appointment before filing the petition.

If state appellate counsel is not available to represent petitioner in the federal habeas corpus proceedings, or if appointment of state appellate counsel would be inappropriate for any reason, the court shall appoint counsel upon application of petitioner. The clerk of court shall have forms available for such application. A model form for such application is annexed to this rule. Counsel shall be appointed from the panel of qualified attorneys maintained by the Federal Public Defender, who may suggest one or more specific counsel for appointment. If application for appointment of counsel is made before a finalized petition has been filed, the application shall be assigned to a district judge in the same manner that a finalized petition would be assigned, and counsel shall be appointed by the assigned judge. The judge so assigned shall continue to preside over the proceedings through their conclusion.

(2) Second Counsel. Appointment and compensation of second counsel shall be governed by § 2.11 of Volume VII of the Guide to Judiciary Policies and Procedures, Appointment of Counsel in Criminal Cases, and by 21 U.S.C. § 848(q).

(e) Filing

Petitions as to which venue lies in this district shall be filed in Seattle.

Petitions shall be completed in conformance with LCR 100. All petitions (a) shall state whether petitioner has previously sought relief arising out of the same matter from this court or any other federal court, together with the ruling and reasons of such court, and (b) shall set forth any scheduled execution date. The above requirements do not apply to preliminary petitions filed under Section (h)(2), below.

An original and three copies of the petition shall be filed by counsel for the petitioner. A pro se petitioner need only file the original. No filing fee is required.

The clerk will immediately notify the Washington Attorney General's Corrections Division when a petition is filed.

When a petition is filed by a petitioner who was convicted outside this district, the clerk will immediately advise the clerk of the court of the district in which the petitioner was convicted.

(f) Assignment to District Judges

Notwithstanding the general assignment plan of this court, petitions shall be assigned to the district judges of the court as follows:

- (1) The clerk shall establish a separate category for these petitions, to be designated with the title "Capital Case."
- (2) All active district judges of this court shall participate in the assignments without regard to intra district venue.
- (3) Petitions in the Capital Case category shall be assigned blindly and randomly by the clerk to an active district judge of the court. If the assigned judge has already presided over at least one Capital Case during his or her tenure as a federal judge in this district, but other active judges have not, then the clerk will reassign the case until each active district judge has had one Capital Case. At such time as each active district judge has had one Capital Case, the blind assignment process will start again until each active district judge has had two Capital Cases, and so on.(4) If the petitioner has previously sought relief in this court with respect to the same conviction, the petition will be assigned to the district judge, if he or she is still sitting, who was assigned to the prior proceeding unless such district judge has taken senior status and has elected not to hear capital habeas corpus petitions.
- (5) Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B), and not inconsistent with law, United States magistrate judges may be designated by the court to perform all duties under this rule, including evidentiary hearings.

(g) Transfer of Venue

Subject to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 2241(d), it is the policy of this court that a petition should be heard in the district in which the petitioner was convicted, rather than in the district of petitioner's present confinement.

If an order for the transfer of venue is made, the district judge will order a stay of execution which shall continue until such time as the transferee court acts upon the petition or the order of stay.

(h) Stays of Execution

- (1) Stay Pending Final Disposition. Upon the filing of a first petition, unless the petition is patently frivolous, the judge will order a stay of execution pending final disposition of the petition in this court.
- (2) Temporary Stay for Appointment of Counsel. Where counsel in the state court proceedings withdraws at the conclusion of the state court proceedings or is otherwise not available or qualified to proceed, the Federal Public Defender will designate an attorney from the panel who will assist an indigent petitioner in filing pro se applications for appointment of counsel and for temporary stay of execution. This application shall be substantially in the form annexed hereto and shall be accompanied by a statement, describing one or more federal grounds for relief, which shall be deemed to be a petition for writ of habeas corpus with leave granted a priori to amend the petition upon appointment of counsel. Upon the filing of this application and statement, the district court shall issue a temporary stay of execution and appoint counsel from the panel of attorneys certified for appointment. The temporary stay will remain in effect for forty-five (45) days unless extended by the court.

(3) Temporary Stay for Preparation of the Petition. Where counsel new to the case is appointed, upon counsel's application for a temporary stay of execution accompanied by a specification of nonfrivolous issues to be raised in the petition, the district court shall issue a temporary stay of execution unless only frivolous issues are presented. If no filing was made under paragraph (h)(2) above, the specification of nonfrivolous issues required under this paragraph shall be deemed to be a petition for writ of habeas corpus with leave having been granted to amend the petition. The temporary stay will remain in effect for one hundred twenty (120) days to allow newly appointed counsel to prepare and file the finalized petition. The temporary stay may be extended by the court upon a subsequent showing of good cause.

(4) Temporary Stay for Transfer of Venue. See paragraph (g) of this rule.

(5) Stay Pending Appeal. If the petition is denied and a certificate of probable cause for appeal is issued, the court will grant a stay of execution which will continue in effect until the court of appeals acts upon the appeal of the order of stay.

(6) Notice of Stay. Upon the granting of any stay of execution, the clerk will immediately notify the Superintendent of the Washington State Penitentiary, the Washington Attorney General, and the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the conviction was obtained. The Washington Attorney General shall ensure that the clerk has a 24 hour telephone number to the Superintendent.

(i) Procedures for Considering the Petition

Unless the district judge dismisses the petition under Rule 4 of the Rules Governing § 2254 Cases, the following schedule and procedure shall apply subject to modification by the district judge for good cause shown. Requests for enlargement of any time period in this Rule shall comply with LCR 7(d)(2) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 6.

(1) Respondent shall as soon as practicable, but in any event on or before twenty (20) days from the date of service of the finalized petition, lodge with the court and serve petitioner's lead counsel with the following:

(A) Transcripts of all state trial court proceedings;

(B) Appellant's and respondent's briefs on direct appeal to the Washington Supreme Court, and the opinion or orders of that court;

(C) Petitioner's and respondent's briefs in any state court post-conviction proceedings, and all opinions, orders, and transcripts of such proceedings;

(D) Copies of all pleadings, opinions, and orders in any previous federal habeas corpus proceeding filed by petitioner, or on petitioner's behalf, which arose from the same conviction;

(E) An index of all materials described in items (A) through (D) above. Such materials are to be marked and numbered so that they can be uniformly cited.

If any items identified in paragraphs (A) through (D) above are not available, respondent shall state when, if at all, such missing material can be lodged.

(2) If counsel for petitioner claims that respondent has not complied with the requirements of paragraph (1), counsel for petitioner shall immediately notify the court in writing, with a copy to respondent.

(3) As soon as practicable after the filing of the record, the court shall set a status conference to determine a schedule for further proceedings.

(j) Evidentiary Hearing

If an evidentiary hearing is held, the court will order the preparation of a transcript of the hearing, which is to be immediately provided to petitioner and respondent for use in briefing and argument. Upon the preparation of the transcript, the court may establish a reasonable schedule for further briefing and argument of the issues considered at the hearing.

(k) Rulings

The court's rulings may be in the form of a written opinion which will be filed, or in the form of an oral opinion on the record in open court, which will be promptly transcribed and filed.

The clerk will immediately notify the Superintendent of the Washington State Penitentiary, the Washington Attorney General, and the prosecutor of the county of conviction whenever relief is granted on a petition.

The clerk will immediately notify the clerk of the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit by telephone of (i) the issuance of a final order denying or dismissing a petition without a certificate of probable cause, or (ii) the denial of a stay of execution.

When a notice of appeal is filed, the clerk will transmit the available records to the Court of Appeals immediately.

I. MOVING PARTY'S INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

Defendant Big Rose Flower Company is the moving party for this submission. Plaintiff Jones Actor is seeking more than $2.5 million in damages, claiming that at the time he purchased Big Rose stock, Big Rose allegedly failed to disclose that the property owned by Big Rose for growing flowers would be unable to produce a suitable crop in 2000. It is claimed that these alleged misstatements violated Section 10(b) of the 1934 Securities Exchange Act and the Washington Securities Act.

These allegations are untrue. Further, Actor is a director of a company that is also in the flower business, Fleurs 'R' Nous Company, and he was undoubtedly aware of the problems caused by the 1999 drought, which affected all flower producing companies in the Northwest.

II. RESPONDING PARTY'S STATEMENT

Jones Actor purchased nearly $3 million of stock in Big Rose--stock that is worth less than $500,000 today. He purchased this substantial amount of stock because of glowing reports from Big Rose regarding its prospects for future profits.

However, things were not as rosy as they seemed. All of Big Rose's land holdings used to produce flowers were not only severely parched by the 1999 drought, but also contaminated with chemicals because of a mistake in choosing fertilizers. Big Rose knew that it was unlikely that these chemicals could be removed from the soil in time to produce a profitable crop for 2000. When this information was finally disclosed to the public, Big Rose stock plummeted in value.

III. DISPUTED DISCOVERY REQUESTS

REQUEST FOR PRODUCTION 17: Please produce all income tax returns for 1995 through 2000 for the Fleurs 'R' Nous Company.

RESPONSE: Actor objects to this request on the grounds that it calls for information neither relevant nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence. Further, the information sought is confidential.

Moving Party's Argument

Actor claims that he was deceived by the alleged omissions of information from Big Rose's public statements. To defend against this claim, Big Rose will show that Actor is a sophisticated individual, who was aware of the risks in the flower business and who also had information obtained by Fleurs 'R' Nous regarding the problems that Big Rose was having with its land at the time he was buying Big Rose stock. Defendants in security cases are properly allowed to obtain tax returns, because they help show the plaintiff's degree of sophistication and understanding of the risks of investment. Davis v. Big Co., 123 F.3d 777, 788 (9th Cir. 1999). Further, the tax return may identify individuals with knowledge of Actor's understanding of the industry.

Responding Party's Response

While it is true that tax returns may be produced to show the degree of sophistication of a securities plaintiff, the tax returns sought here are not Actor's personal tax returns, but rather the tax returns for a company in which he is a director and part owner. That company is not a party to these proceedings. Non-parties should not be forced to produce their tax returns absent very compelling reasons. Westminster v. Abbey, 867 F.3d 309, 312 (9th Cir. 1999). No compelling reasons have been presented. Fleurs 'R' Nous is not a publicly traded company, and its financial and other information is maintained as confidential. It is a competitor of Big Rose, and disclosure of this information through discovery could be harmful.

Moving Party's Reply

Actor's supposed concern about Fleurs 'R' Nous' confidential information can be addressed through a protective order. Big Rose will agree not to disclose this information to persons other than counsel and experts absent agreement of the parties or further order of the court. While Fleurs 'R' Nous is not a party, its tax returns may contain information about money spent addressing the drought problem that was common to several floral companies. Thus, the information could lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

CERTIFICATION

I certify that the full response by the responding party has been included in this submission, and that prior to making this submission the parties conferred to attempt to resolve this discovery dispute in accordance with LCR 37(a).
