

United States District Court
Western District of Washington
Public Notice for Appointment of a New Magistrate Judge

September 18, 2014

The Judicial Conference of the United States has authorized the appointment of a full-time United States magistrate judge for the Western District of Washington. The magistrate judge duty station will be Tacoma, Washington. The position is available starting April 1, 2015, subject to the Judiciary receiving an appropriation for full year funding for Fiscal Year 2015. Applications will be accepted until November 1, 2014.

The duties of the position are demanding and wide-ranging:

- (1) Conduct of most preliminary proceedings in criminal cases; pleas, first appearances and warrants;
- (2) Trial and disposition of misdemeanor cases;
- (3) Conduct of various proceedings on delegation from a district judge, including prisoner civil rights cases, habeas petitions, and a high volume of Social Security appeals; and
- (4) Trial and disposition of civil cases upon consent of the litigants.

The basic authority of a United States magistrate judge is specified in 28 U.S.C. § 636.

To be qualified for appointment an applicant must:

1. Be, and have been for at least five years, a member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of a state, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Territory of Guam, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, or the Virgin Islands of the United States, and have been engaged in the active practice of law for a period of at least five years (with some substitutes authorized);
2. Be competent to perform all the duties of the office; be of good moral character; be emotionally stable and mature; be committed to equal justice under the law; be in good health; be patient and courteous; and be capable of deliberation and decisiveness;
3. Be less than seventy years old; and
4. Not be related to a judge of the district court.

A merit selection panel composed of attorneys and other members of the community will review all applicants and recommend to the district judges in confidence the five persons it considers best qualified. The court will make the appointment following an FBI full-field investigation and an IRS tax check of the applicant selected by the court for appointment. An affirmative effort will be made to give due consideration to all qualified applicants without regard to race, color, age (40 and over), gender, religion, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation. The current annual salary of the position is $183,172. The term of office is eight years with the possibility of renewal.

Application forms and more information on the magistrate judge position in this court may be obtained from the district court executive/clerk of the court via the court's Internet website at www.wawd.uscourts.gov. Applications must be submitted only by applicants personally and must be received by November 1, 2014.

All applications will be kept confidential, except for the committee's contact with references. All applications will be examined only by members of the merit selection panel and the judges of the district court. All the information provided is subject to verification. The panel's deliberations will remain confidential.

Applicants should send their application materials, including a cover letter and the job application form, to:
